Objectives for 3rd ERP

The 3rd European Rural Parliament in Venhorst has strongly forward looking objectives:

- To strengthen the voice of rural people and communities
- To encourage our partners to activate local actors - the heart and spirit of the process
- To build the ERP network and its activities
- To develop strong partnerships with European rural development actors.

Come and meet your friends and make new ones

In the workshops
at lunches and dinners
on the square
with the families

"Make experiences become action"

The expeditions showed many practical examples on how to develop your home-area

Eg.

- Strength of voluntary work and self-governance in Peel en Maas
- Inhabitants working closely together with entrepreneurs and municipalities
- Social business cases for inhabitants in Elsendorp

→ bring home good ideas and start doing!

Let's work together for a sustainable ERP and invite others to join

- Learn about ERP thematic work
- participate in various workshops
- Learn from other countries at the market of initiatives
- Bring your ideas to the table in the hall
- Offer to participate in the ERP-work and themes
- Involve others in the ERP-work
- Suggest important activities that you think should be on the agenda

“We are the voice – from people to people and Europe”

- The state of rural Europe: give your ideas on policies
- What can the EU and ERP do together?
- What is the future of the ERP? Role, structure, programme, funding
- Reaffirmation and amendment of the European Rural Manifesto
- Discussion and adoption of the Venhorst Declaration
- Final signing of the Manifesto and Declaration
